

Crash Course Sociology #7

WEB duBois & Race Conflict

1. What were some of the accomplishments of W.E.B. Du Bois?

a. He was one of the earliest American sociologists, as well as one of the first proponents of _____.

b. In 1968, race was considered a _____. This idea is understood today as being _____.

i. Instead, race is thought of as a _____ category of people, who share biological traits that society has deemed important.

ii. What did Du Bois mean by "double consciousness"?

c. Racial identity theory looks at how individuals come to _____ as a certain race.

d. What are some ways in which Du Bois found that the black population differed from the white population in his 1896 study in the 7th ward of Philadelphia?

i. He concluded that much of the dysfunction within Black communities came from their _____ to things like _____ and _____.

e. What is racial formation theory?

f. Over time, Du Bois grew frustrated with the limits of scholarship in affecting change, so he turned to direct _____ and political _____.

g. What is meant by the phrase "structural racism"?