

CRASH COURSE: U.S. History

TIME-STAMPED EPISODE 16: WOMEN IN THE 19TH CENTURY

1. In general, throughout history, women of _____ social classes tend to live under greater restrictions, though they have better mortality rates. (1:32)
2. Because _____ was a requirement for voting in early America, women were locked out of the political process. (2:00)
3. Women were allowed education because the ideal of _____ meant that they would need to be able to teach their children. (2:38)
4. The “cult of _____” decreed that a woman’s role was to make a nice home for her husband, who would be the one to support the family financially. (3:26)
5. The idea of true equality of men and women at this time was considered _____. (5:05)
6. Poor women could find work in _____ or as domestic _____, while middle class women could become _____. (5:28)
7. Reformer Dorothea Dix was intent on helping the _____, while Carrie Nation was active in the effort to ban _____. (6:09)
8. By the end of the 19th century, one of the most powerful lobbying groups in the nation was the Women’s Christian _____ Union, founded by Frances Willard. (6:17)
9. In order to change the laws against alcohol, or those that prevented them from divorcing or owning property, women needed the right to _____. (8:03)
10. The famed abolitionist novel, _____, was written by Harriet Beecher Stowe; it was banned in most of the _____. (8:20)
11. Pro-slavery advocates sometimes argued that granting equality to African Americans might eventually lead to equality for _____, which in their eyes was a bad thing. (9:30)
12. The Declaration of Sentiments, which argued for women’s suffrage, was published at the 1848 _____ Convention. (9:44)
13. The Declaration of Sentiments was modeled after the _____, except that it was a lot more radical. (9:58)
14. The women’s movement was generally an effort of the _____. (10:25)
15. The most famous black woman abolitionist was _____, who spoke out about the problems of _____ class women. (10:37)
16. A new kind of women’s clothing more appropriate to work tasks was invented by Amelia _____. (11:12)
17. In the end, the United States ended slavery more than _____ before women in all states were granted the right to vote. (11:56)