

End of World War I: Peace and Reparations

Effects of World War I

- Allied victory over the Central powers
- Millions of deaths and injuries
 - 10 million of soldiers dead
 - 20 million people injured
- Breakup of the Ottoman, German, and Austrian-Hungarian empires. (New nations were created)

1918	Wilson delivers his Fourteen Point speech to Congress →	What were Wilson's Fourteen Points? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6-13. 14.
1919	Treaty of Versailles is signed. →	What terms of the treaty specifically affected Germany?
1920	Senate Rejects Treaty of Versailles →	What were the weaknesses of the Treaty of Versailles?
1921	Senate again rejects Treaty of Versailles →	Why did Henry Cabot Lodge object to the Treaty?
	U.S signs separate Treaty with Germany →	How did Wilson help bring about the Senate's rejection of the treaty?
		What circumstances led many Germans to support Adolf Hitler?