Roosevelt's Alphabet Soup

As we look at the major programs from Roosevelt's New Deal, decide if it's meant to provide Relief, Recovery, or Reform. Sometimes a big bowl of soup hits the spot!

| New Deal Program | Relief | Recovery | Reform |
|--|---|---|---|
| Agriculture Adjustment Administration (AAA) Helped stabilize prices for crops by paying farmers NOT to grow too much food. Helped farmers not lose their farms! |  |  |  |
| Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Temporarily employed 250,000 unmarried young adults in reforestation and conservation jobs. They planted trees and helped with park projects. | | | |
| Civil Works Administration (CWA) Provided $15 a week to four million workers in temporary public works jobs. This program provided workers to take care of quick city jobs like repairing roads and bridges. | | | |
| Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) Insurance from the government for people's bank deposits to prevent bank failure. The money you place in the bank is insured to be there no matter what for up to $100,000. | | | |
| Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) Provided long-term but not permanent jobs to workers to build a dam and irrigation system in the Tennessee Valley. | | | |
| Social Security Administration (SSA) Provides pensions, unemployment insurance, and aid to blind, deaf, & disabled people. Americans pay in to Social Security while they are employed and get paid back when they retire. | | | |
| Works Projects Administration (WPA) Employed 8.5 million workers in large-scale art and construction jobs. These jobs included building projects for cities and towns. Murals, school buildings, etc. | | | |
| Securities And Exchange Commission (SEC) Established rules and laws for how Americans, banks, and businesses can participate in the Stock Exchange. Regulates the stock market and restricts margin buying. | | | |
| Home Owners Loan Corporation (HOLC) Gave low interest rate loans to homeowners who couldn't make mortgage payments to prevent Americans from becoming homeless so they could get back on their feet. | | | |
| Federal Emergency Relief Act (FERA) Gave federal money to states to help them provide food and assistance to people in need. This was immediate emergency funding to respond to the staggering number of struggling Americans. | | | |
| True or False: The New Deal ended the Great Depression. How many terms was F.D.R. elected as President? | | | |
