

Seal of the United States

Imagine that congress has asked you to design a new national seal to represent America. Draw a sketch of your new seal in the space below. Use lots of color. Then write a few complete sentences to describe your new seal and the meaning of its symbols.

