

WWII WAR POSTER

This image is one of the hundreds of war posters published during WWII to encourage Americans to join the war effort. The quote, "... We here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain..." comes from President Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

1. What event during the war is this poster referring to? _____
2. What emotions does this poster appeal? _____
3. What parts of the poster is meant to generate those emotions? _____

4. Before December 7th, many Americans were reluctant about entering another war. How does this poster attempt to change their opinion? _____

More Posters ...

Directions: Critically examine each image & describe what you think the important message was on each poster. Also explain which emotion/s each poster appeals to.

